Obituary

MRS. CARRIE IRENE WILLIAMS, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Hughes, was born April 12, 1902. She was a native of Clark County, Arkansas. Her parents and two children, Thelma Davis and Perry Williams, preceded her in death.

Mrs. Williams was a faithful member of Holy Tabernacle Church of God in Christ and was baptized on July 30, 1959. Until her death, she was actively involved in doing the Lord's work, in and out of the church. She spent a great deal of time sharing the word of those confined in Convalescent Hospitals.

She departed this life on January 8, 1986, keeping busy until the Lord called her home. She leaves behind: a daughter, Earline Freemont, who she lovingly shared her life with until the final call.

Other survivors include: three brothers, Alford, Felix and Dock Hughes of Malvern, Arkansas; four sisters, Mrs. Bertha Fraction, Margaret Smith, Catherine Bundy and Cleo Hughes, also of Malvern; and eleven grandchildren, Margie Tucker, Ledridge Davis, Helen Davis-Lincoln, Barbara Davis-Butler, Jolene Freemont-Mayfield, Willie Jean Thomas-Finley, Grover Thomas, Doronda Thomas and Byron Lee Thomas. She also leaves 29 great grandchildren, a host of great great grandchildren; and several relatives and friends.

"MAMA, CARRIE, AUNT CARRIE, MOTHER WILLIAMS, WE WILL MISS YOU AND YOU WILL ALWAYS BE IN OUR HEARTS."

When I'm Gone
When I'm Gone
Don't you weep . . .
For I'm going to heaven above,
Going to meet the God I love,
Oh don't you weep when I'm gone.
